

A mobile tractor-trailer truck that transforms into an automotive service center.

Possible Uses:

- Employer provided on-site service
- Extended reach into C&D markets
- Event marketing

Employer On-Site Billing Options:

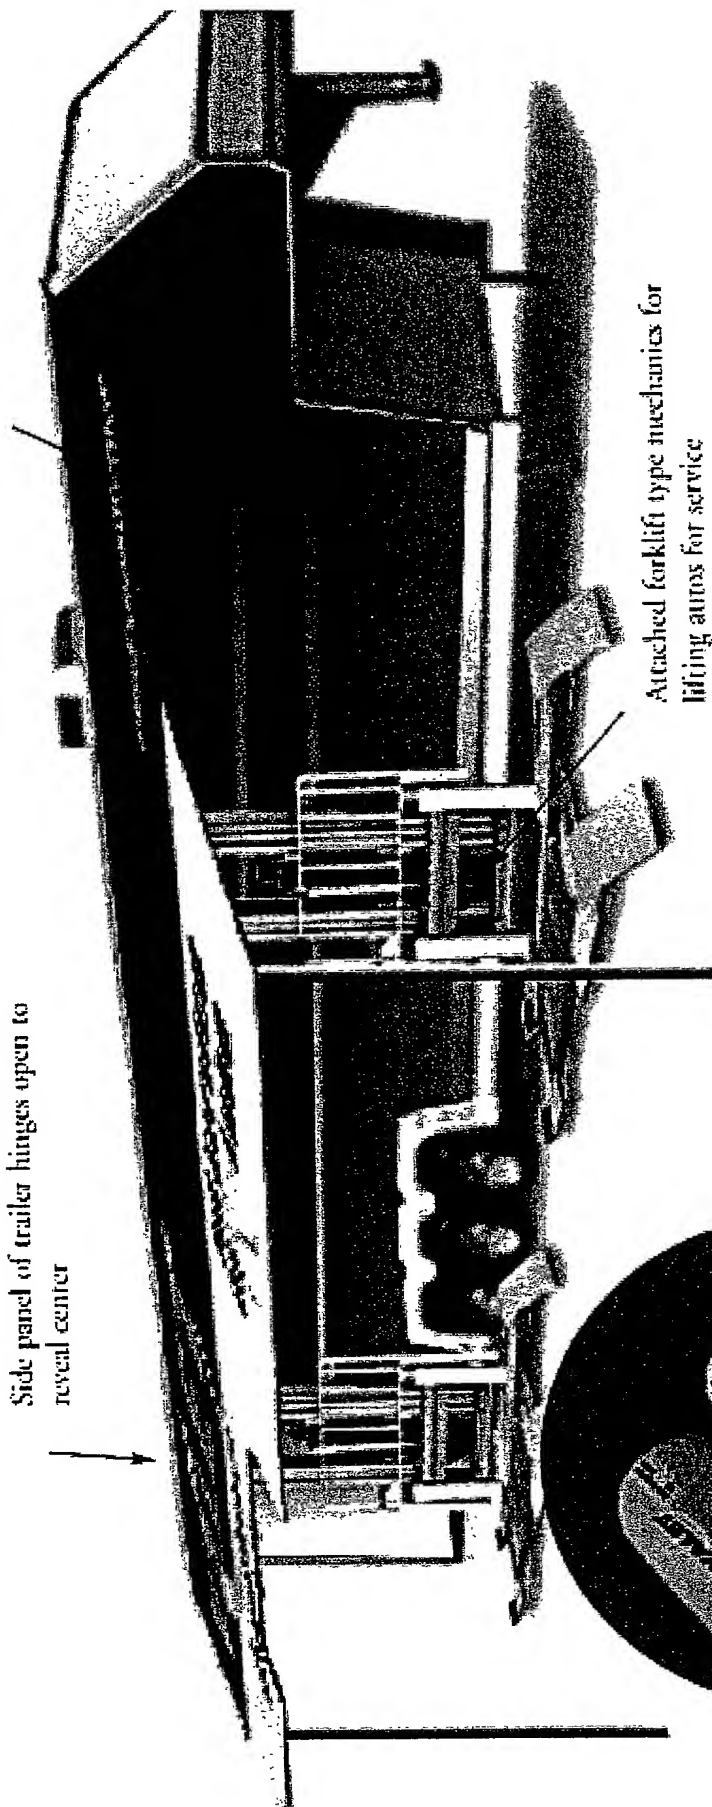

- Employer paid benefit
- Employee paid payroll deduction
- Formal credit program either through oil change company or Mastercard/Visa

Fig 1

Interior of trailer is designed according to specifications of a stationary automotive service center to accommodate equipment, parts, oil and other supplies. Is also equipped with approved oil recovery and storage systems.

Side panel of trailer hinges open to reveal center

Attached forklift type mechanics for lifting autos for service

Color coded oil filters to verify to customers that oil change was completed

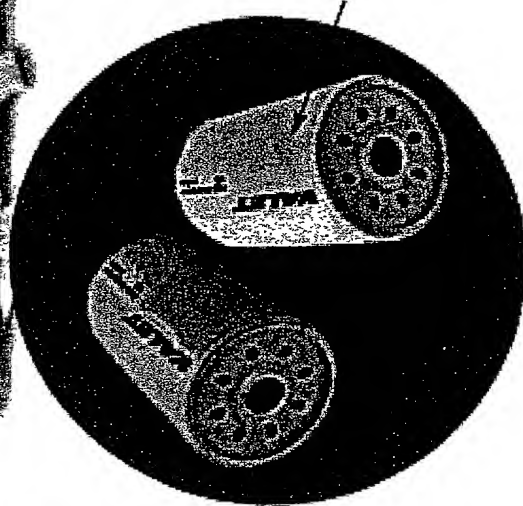

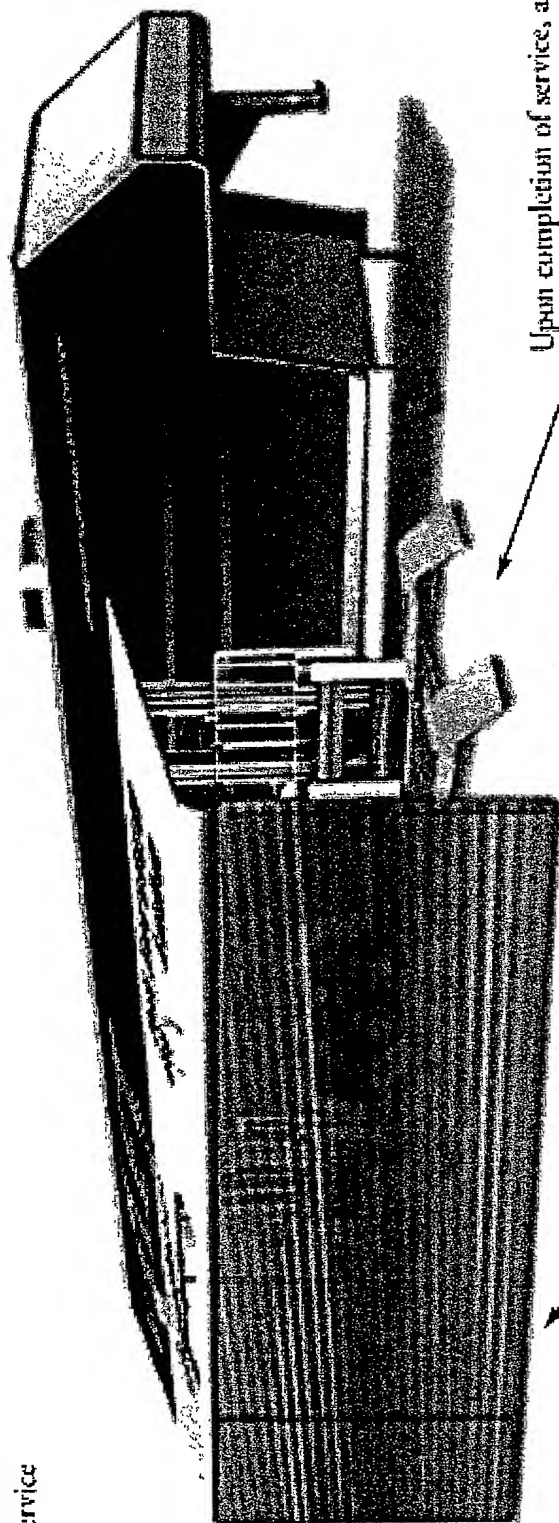

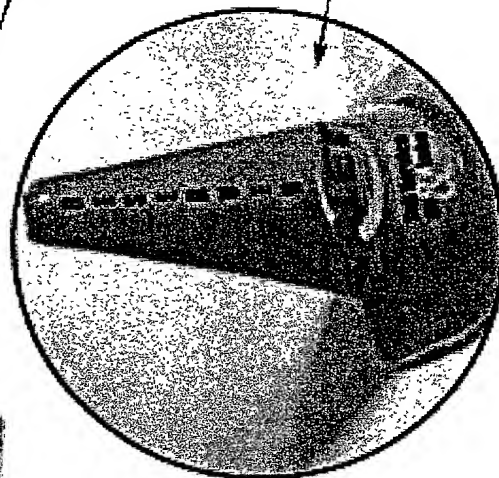

Fig 2

Autos are valet
driven to service center and onto lifts for service

Roll screen pulls down from extended side panel for weather shield

Upon completion of service, autos are returned to previous parking location

Parking space place holder

Fig 3

Beige Valet Key Boxes
detach from black stationary, secured
base for valet access at service center

12

15

17

24

Order Form Box

14

20

Employee inserts keys with attached, bar-coded key card and order form with special service
requests

Bar-coded customer
key card for tracking customer, service, and billing

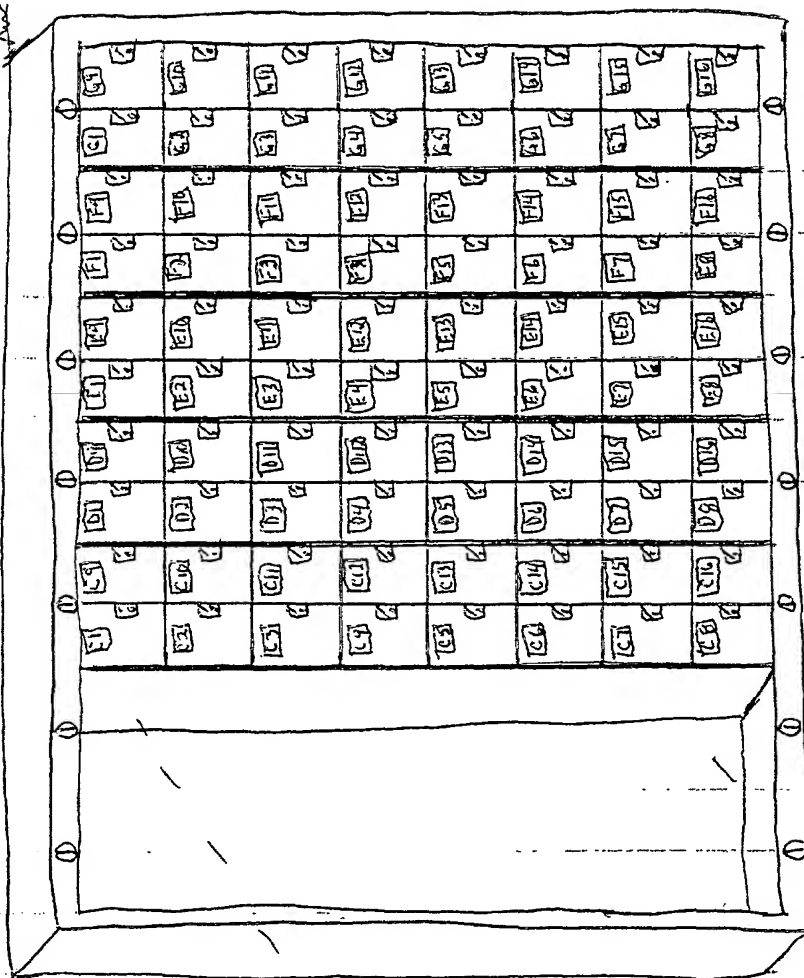

Fig 4

Employee Key Drop off Box/Lockers

Open Locker

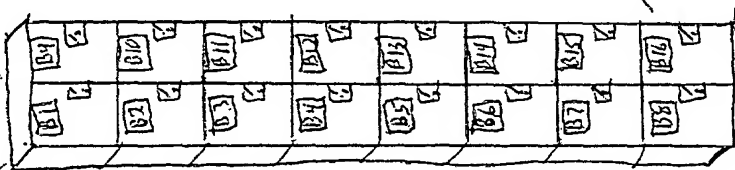

12

19

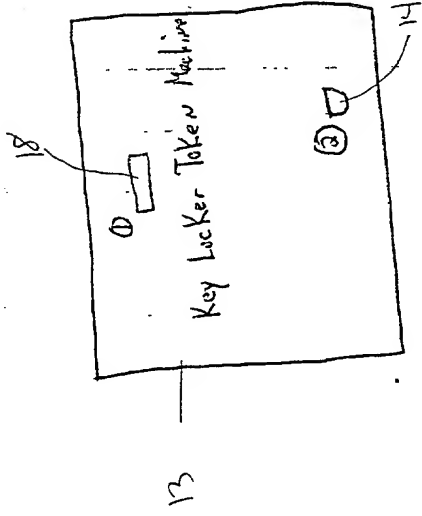

16

585

Employee Key Locker

- ① Employee Swipes or Scans Employee I.D. Card w/ Bar Code, Magnetic Strip, etc.
- ② The Token Machine will Dispense (1) one Token that can be used in the Employee Key Drop off Box/Secure Lockers.

Note: The Scanner/Scan Systems will also be part of a tracking Device to show that the Employee actually Drop off a set of keys and at what time

FIG 6

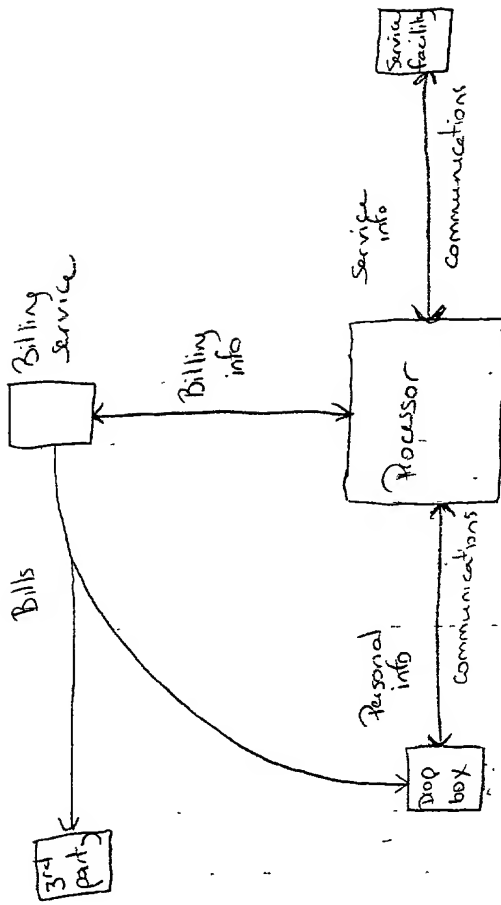

FIG 7

1.0 Carleton Employee Service Benefit "Employee On-Site Vehicle Service" Process

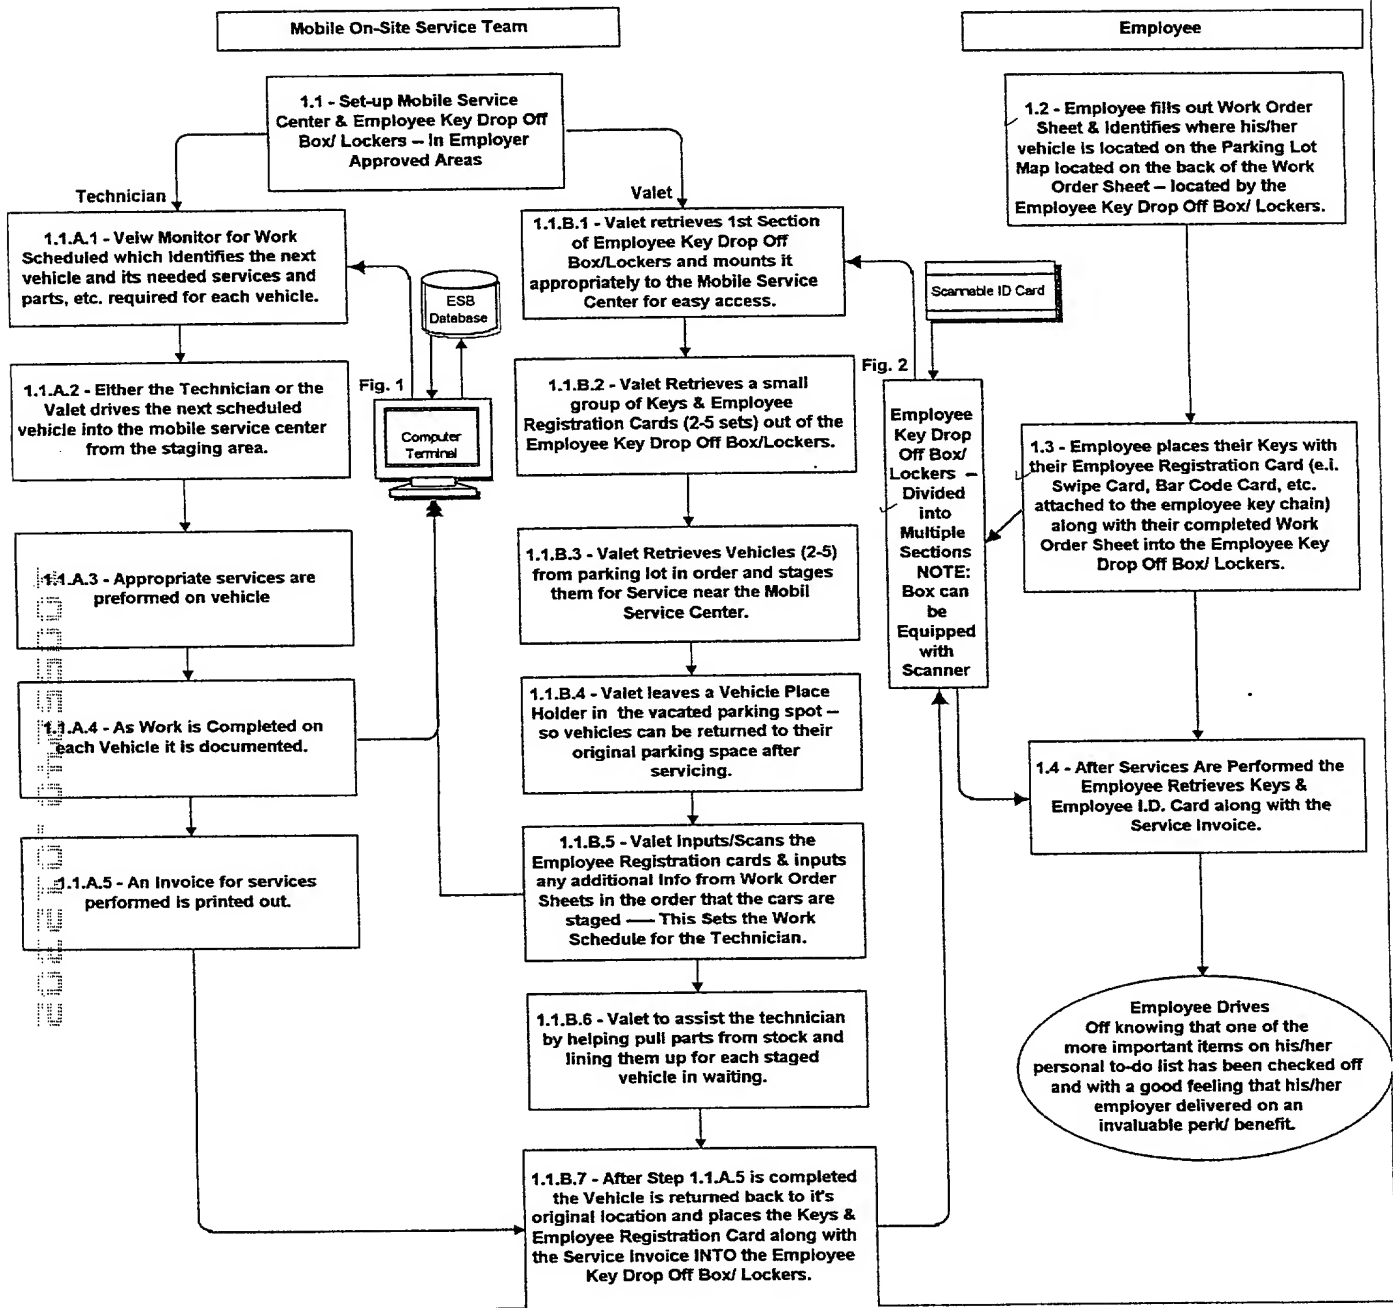

Fig 8